

IT'S YOUR PICK

FIND ART IN YOUR OWN BACKYARD (AND INSIDE YOUR HOME)!

In artist Helen Galloway McNicoll's brief 10-year career, she had a massive impact on the Canadian art scene. McNicoll was one of the first Canadian artists to excel at home and abroad with a distinctly Impressionist style: visible brush strokes with an emphasis on light and shadow. She painted rural landscapes, working women and intimate child subjects.
