

AGO
Art Gallery of Ontario

YEAR IN REVIEW
2013-2014

Message from the President and the Director

This past 2013-14 fiscal year, the Art Gallery of Ontario continued its mission to bring people together with art to see, experience and understand the world in new ways. Through thought-provoking exhibitions, inspired programming and strong community outreach, we have continued to show our visitors that they truly belong here. The AGO welcomed 861,991 visitors, and we increased our membership numbers to an all-time high of 93,500 engaged patrons.

“Through thought-provoking exhibitions, inspired programming and strong community outreach, we have continued to show our visitors that they truly belong here.”

We were proud to showcase a variety of exhibitions this year that allowed our visitors to examine the role of art in their lives. We explored freedom of expression through Ai Weiwei: According to What?; one artist's iconic influence on contemporary culture through David Bowie is; and an intense chapter in world history through The Great Upheaval: Masterpieces from the Guggenheim Collection. We celebrated internationally acclaimed Canadian artists with the exhibitions Lost in the Memory Palace: Janet Cardiff and George Bures Miller and Sorel Etrog.

We provided opportunities for the public to connect with the work of emerging artists, and with the artists themselves, through our Artist-in-Residence program and our ever-popular AGO First Thursdays. Families found new and fun ways to engage with art thanks to the opening of our new Kids' Gallery and the launch of the mobile app Time Tremors AGO.

We remain committed to making the AGO an accessible destination and resource for everyone through programs such as our free Wednesday evenings, Free After Three access for secondary school students and free community memberships for GTA-based, not-for-profit organizations serving challenged communities.

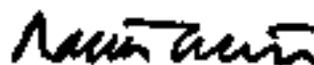

We also remain committed to providing Ontario students with fun and engaging ways to learn through our curriculum-based programming. This past year, we had 42,755 students come to the Gallery. Reaching outside of our building, we provided access to art in public spaces, with the installation of Ai Weiwei's monumental sculpture, Circle of Animals/Zodiac Heads: Bronze, in Nathan Phillips Square. We also launched AGO Live Stream, an online service providing streaming video access to AGO events, performances, talks and symposia with interactive features, including a built-in chat box, to allow the public to interact with our works regardless of the distance.

None of the work we were able to achieve this year would have been possible without the leadership and support of the Province of Ontario, the City of Toronto and the Canada Council for the Arts. We thank them for allowing our organization to continue to grow our audiences and extend our reach into the community. We also thank the many AGO donors, from individual members to corporate sponsors, for providing their support for our mission and mandate, as well as recognizing our role in our city, our province and our country.

Highlights of the Year

APRIL 1, 2013 – MARCH 31, 2014

APRIL 2013

- Internationally acclaimed Canadian artists Janet Cardiff and George Bures Miller make their highly anticipated return to Toronto with the exhibition Lost in the Memory Palace. The exhibition, organized by the Art Gallery of Ontario and the Vancouver Art Gallery, presents a selection of seven installations incorporating complex soundtracks, videos, objects and images. Accompanying the exhibition is a special presentation of Janet Cardiff's Millennium Prize-winning sound installation The Forty Part Motet.

- The AGO pays tribute to Toronto-based artist Sorel Etrog with an exhibition that spans his 50-year career. To celebrate the artist's contribution to Toronto's streetscape, the AGO launches Seeking Sorel Etrog, an interactive Google map designed to help visitors discover and share Etrog's public works online.
- More than 1,800 art lovers attend the AGO's ninth annual Massive Party fundraiser, enjoying a dazzling night of live music, installations and performances by 14 Toronto artists, including Thrush Holmes, Jade Rude and Maylee Todd. Proceeds from this fundraiser support the AGO's exhibitions and education programs.

MAY 2013

- National Youth Arts Week kicks off at the AGO, the largest annual youth-led celebration of creative expression in Canada. Organized by the Michaëlle

Jean Foundation and Arts Network for Children and Youth (ANCY), this annual event provides an opportunity for youth to engage in creative expression, have their voices heard and demonstrate the power of art to transform the world.

- The AGO shines new light on its own treasures with two new photography exhibitions co-presented with the Scotiabank CONTACT Photography Festival. Light My Fire: Some Propositions about Portraits and Photography showcases portraits created by photographers over a 150-year period, while Jason Evans, the AGO's photographer-in-residence, casts AGO staff members in playful group portraits for a public installation entitled A long, long time AGO.
- A special Mother's Day menu at FRANK Restaurant gives families yet another reason to visit the AGO on this memorable day.

- The AGO installs the monumental sculpture series Circle of Animals/Zodiac Heads: Bronze by Chinese artist and activist Ai Weiwei in the reflecting pool of Nathan Phillips Square at City Hall. This installation is a precursor to the opening of the exhibition Ai Weiwei: According to What? at the AGO in August.

- The AGO hosts the 5th Annual BIG BAM BOOM youth-led arts festival. Organized by Arts for Children and Youth (AFCY), the festival showcases the achievements and talents of children and youth artists in Toronto's at-risk neighbourhoods.

Highlights of the Year

APRIL 1, 2013 – MARCH 31, 2014

JULY 2013

- AGO artist-in-residence Mohamed Bourouissa explores issues of appropriation and re-appropriation, using 3-D printing technology to create objects inspired by the AGO's Inuit collection. Bourouissa's residency is presented as part of Paris-Toronto, a series highlighting contemporary art from France co-ordinated by the Consulate General of France in Toronto, with the support of the Institut français.

- AGO Art Rental & Sales celebrates its return to the AGO with a special installation of works by contemporary Canadian artists John Brown, Chris Dorosz, Will Gorlitz, Amanda Reeves and Jeannie Thib.
- The AGO hosts the 2013 National Championship of Art Battle Canada. Yared Nigussu emerges as the winner among finalists from Toronto, Vancouver, Halifax, Ottawa, Montreal, Saint John, N.B., and Hamilton.

AUGUST 2013

- Ai Weiwei: According to What? opens at the AGO. The exhibition, organized by the Mori Art Museum, Tokyo, and the Art Gallery of Ontario, features photographs, sculpture, installation art, and audio and video pieces by one of the most powerful figures in contemporary art. To mark the opening weekend, we host the community art performance Say their Names, Remember, a live reading by 280 local community members of the names of the 5,200 schoolchildren who lost their lives in the 2008 Sichuan earthquake.

- More than 200 teachers participate in an orientation about the AGO's exhibitions and school group programs planned for the upcoming school year.
- Works of art created by the AGO's Free After Three youth program are showcased at St. Patrick subway station as part of the pilot project Art Responsibly. The event is organized by Arts for Children and Youth (AFCY).

SEPTEMBER 2013

- As a tribute to the passion demonstrated by artist Ai Weiwei for digital expression, the AGO poses the question "What does freedom mean to you?" at #aiwwAGO during the run of the exhibition Ai Weiwei: According to What? Thousands of comments and photos are exchanged through Twitter, Instagram and Facebook.
- The AGO is the first North American stop for David Bowie is as it begins an unprecedented world tour direct from a record-breaking run at the Victoria and Albert Museum, London. The exhibition features more than 300 objects spanning five decades from Bowie's personal archive.

- A special installation entitled Kenojuak Ashevak: In Memoriam opens at the AGO, honouring the contribution of this senior Inuit artist to the Canadian cultural landscape.

Highlights of the Year

APRIL 1, 2013 – MARCH 31, 2014

OCTOBER 2013

- Modest Livelihood, a collaborative work by Canadian artists Brian Jungen and Duane Linklater, makes its Ontario debut at the AGO. This 50-minute film, shot with a Super 16mm camera, premiered at the Banff Centre in 2012 as part of DOCUMENTA 13.
- AGO artist-in-residence Diane Borsato hosts 100 beekeepers in the AGO's Walker Court for a collective act of meditation entitled Your Temper, My Weather during Scotiabank Nuit Blanche 2013.
- AGO First Thursdays celebrates its first anniversary. This extremely popular program offers an evening of special events, performances and hands-on artmaking activities the first Thursday of each month. AGO First Thursdays gives profile to local and international artists, providing opportunities for participants to get up close and personal with artists' work and the artists themselves.

- The AGO acquires new works by Canadian artists Shuvinai Ashoona, Anthony Burnham, Karel Funk and Celia Perrin Sidarous from proceeds raised from the Art Toronto 2013 Opening Night Preview Gala, with assistance from the Dr. Michael Braudo Canadian Contemporary Art Fund and the Chalmers Art Fund.
- The AGO's Family Sundays program is moved from a monthly to a weekly program in response to public interest in this popular weekend family activity.

NOVEMBER 2013

- The Aimia | AGO Photography Prize of $50,000 is awarded to Canada's Erin Shirreff, selected by public vote. Finalists Edgardo Aragón (Mexico), LaToya Ruby Frazier (United States) and Chino Otsuka (Japan/United Kingdom) each receive a $5,000 stipend dedicated to the research, creation and production of new work. All four artists receive six- to eight-week fully funded residencies across Canada.

Highlights of the Year

APRIL 1, 2013 – MARCH 31, 2014

- The Great Upheaval: Masterpieces from the Guggenheim Collection, 1910–1918 opens, featuring more than 60 works from The Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation, New York. The exhibition explores several years of unprecedented social, political and technological change through painting and sculpture, illustrated by such masters as Kandinsky, Picasso, Modigliani and Chagall.

- New perspectives are introduced to the AGO's Canadian galleries, with contemporary interventions of works by Chester Brown, Meryl McMaster and Sara Angelucci installed next to iconic historical works.
- AGO Live Stream is launched, an online service that provides streaming video access to AGO events, performances, talks and symposia. The service has interactive features, including a built-in chat box to allow viewers to discuss questions posed on-site or online by an AGO moderator.

DECEMBER 2013

- The AGO launches our new Kids' Gallery with Just Like Me: Explore, Imagine, Create, the first of an ongoing exhibition series geared toward children and their families. This gallery space features artworks, activities and a play area for families to explore together.
- The AGO acquires the renowned Malcolmson Collection, a grouping of 268 vintage photographic works. The acquisition was made possible through a donation of photographs by Ann and Harry Malcolmson and a private donation.

- shopAGO's annual Holiday Gift Guide offers myriad creative giving suggestions for friends and family of all ages during the festive season.

JANUARY 2014

- CBC's Rick Mercer Report visits the AGO, with host Rick Mercer making a visit to our Conservation Studio, the Great Upheaval exhibition and our new Kids' Gallery.

- Works by more than 30 artists from the AGO's contemporary collection are profiled in the new installation Elevated: Contemporary Art in the AGO Tower. As a special feature of the installation, visitors are able to witness restoration work performed by AGO Conservation staff on Simon Starling's sculpture Infestation Piece (musselled Moore) (2006-2008).
- Visitors are invited to take a spin around the Walker Court "dance floor" as the AGO celebrates the era during the Great Upheaval exhibition—and the 101st anniversary of the tango, complete with a series of free tango lessons.
- The AGO is featured in the January issue of Weddingbells Magazine as a stunning, one-of-a-kind venue for special occasions.

Highlights of the Year

APRIL 1, 2013 – MARCH 31, 2014

FEBRUARY 2014

- Artist-in-residence Jim Munroe hosts the Fancy Videogame Party, bringing together some of the best multi-player, party and physical video games from around the world for a one-night event at the AGO. His residency explores videogame culture with a special installation in the AGO's community gallery and a four-week game design workshop.
- The popular KGO—Kids Gallery of Ontario—returns for Family Day with a Gallery-wide game of Clue, an all-day dance party and a variety of exciting artmaking activities.

- The Time Tremors AGO mobile app wins the Best Learning App at the New iKids Awards, part of KidsScreen New York. Geared to kids aged seven to 12, Time Tremors AGO transforms a visit to the Gallery into an interactive treasure hunt for the entire family.

MARCH 2014

- The exhibition Bruce Nauman's Words on Paper opens. Drawn from the AGO's contemporary collection, the installation features rarely seen works on paper from the 1970s and 1980s, demonstrating the American artist's fascination with language.
- The AGO offers nine days of drop-in March Break fun for families, featuring a gravity-defying race car circuit of the Hot Wheels® Ultimate Track stretching more than 500 feet.

- The AGO introduces a new tour program of our Conservation activities, offering a behind-the-scenes perspective on this important aspect of our operation.

Acquisition Highlights

APRIL 1, 2013 – MARCH 31, 2014

The AGO's acquisition activity has focused on strategically adding works of the highest artistic quality to continue strengthening our collection. In 2013-14, 390 works were added to the AGO's holdings, bringing each area of our collection to a higher level of excellence.

The following images highlight a key acquisition for each of our collecting areas: Canadian, Contemporary/Modern, European, Photography, and Prints and Drawings.

NOTES

- The above statement of operations provides a summary of the AGO's financial activity for 2013-14 and 2012-13. Financial statements for the 2013-14 fiscal year (April 1, 2013 to March 31, 2014), audited by Ernst & Young, are available upon request from the Art Gallery of Ontario. (Director's Office: 416 979 6613)
- In the 2013-14 fiscal year, the AGO received gifts of works of art with an approximate value of $5,165,000. This is not reflected in the financial data above, but is included in the AGO's 2013-14 audited financial statements.
- The AGO records capital asset purchases at cost and then amortizes its capital assets over the useful life of the asset. Donations and grants received for the purchase of capital assets are deferred and then amortized based on the useful life of the asset.
- Remeasurement related to pension plan is the difference between actual and expected return on pension plan assets. Additional details can be found in the AGO's 2013-14 audited financial statements.
