The fiscal year 2012-13 was a period of substantial change and achievement for the Art Gallery of Ontario. We embarked on our new strategic plan with two main objectives: to grow our audiences and to become the arts and culture destination in Toronto. Thanks to a strong program of exhibitions and activities that truly resonated with the public, the AGO welcomed 846,829 visitors, one of our largest annual attendance figures in almost 20 years. Our membership increased to 92,050 members, our highest membership number in AGO history.

"... the AGO welcomed 846,829 visitors, one of our largest annual attendance figures in almost 20 years.”

This remarkable year reinforced that art is at the centre of all we do. Our exhibition program brought masterpieces by 20th-century icons Pablo Picasso, Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera to the people of Toronto. We showcased rare 14th-century Florentine works that had never travelled outside of Italy. We celebrated internationally renowned Canadian artists, with major exhibitions by Michael Snow and Evan Penny. Emerging Toronto-based and international artists were profiled in our Toronto Now exhibition series and our artist-in-residence program.

We introduced more interactive experiences for visitors of all ages. People were invited to talk and create works with artists; observe and question conservators as they undertook restoration work; and make their own works of art, including skateboards! We became one of the first institutions in Canada to allow visitors to photograph and video for personal use in our collection galleries. Interactive went online with the AGO becoming the first Canadian art gallery to join the Google Art Project. Public reaction was overwhelmingly positive to all these initiatives, reinforcing our underlying belief that each individual enjoys making a truly personal connection with art.

We opened up to a larger audience demographic with a new program—First Thursdays—a once-a-month art evening that offers a different themed-based program each time, with music performances, artmaking activities, artist and curator tours. First Thursdays has been an instant success, with overflow crowds for each event.

We firmly believe that art is for everyone and continue to work with our partners in the government, corporate and community sectors to ensure that every individual has the opportunity to interact with the great works of art in our collection. Visitors may come on our free Wednesday evenings and secondary level students visit our Free After Three programs. Organizations serving financially and socially challenged sectors bring their clients through our community access programs; for many it’s their first visit to an art museum.

We are very proud that with the introduction of so many new and exciting programs, the AGO was able to maintain its fiscal prudence, completing the year with a surplus of $750,000, which will be used to invest in future programming.

As we complete a very successful 2012-13 year, we want to thank the many AGO donors from the corporate and private sectors who support our organization. Our sincere thanks also go to the Province of Ontario as our major government partner and to the City of Toronto and the Canada Council for their ongoing support in ensuring that we make art accessible to all citizens.

Highlights of the Year
APRIL 1, 2012 – MARCH 31, 2013

APRIL 2012

• The new David Milne Centre opens, making an important part of the AGO’s collection even more accessible to the public. Combining art with archives, the centre is an innovative first for the AGO with a display of 31 works by the artist, along with archival materials ranging from letters, photographs, diaries and sketches to a paint box and a painter’s coat.

• The Toronto Now exhibition series kicks off the year with The Fortune Teller, an installation by Toronto-based artist Annie MacDonell, in partnership with the 25th Images Festival.

• The extraordinary generosity of one of the AGO’s great donors is marked by the exhibition Ayala Zacks 1912–2011: A Tribute. Ayala and Sam Zacks gave more than 300 works of European and Canadian modern art to the AGO in the 1970s.

• The AGO becomes the first Canadian art gallery to join the Google Art Project—a collaboration between Google and a select group of international art partners. This unique online art experience allows users to explore a wide range of artworks at brushstroke-level detail and build their own collections to share.

MAY 2012

• Picasso: Masterpieces from the Musée National Picasso, Paris, opens at the AGO, marking the only Canadian stop on its world tour and covering virtually every phase of the modern master’s unceasingly radical and diverse career.

The exhibition, co-organized by the Musée National Picasso, Paris, and the Art Gallery of Ontario, is a major success, drawing 308,582 visitors during its 17-week run and ranking as the fourth-highest attended exhibition in the AGO’s history.

• Incense and memory pervade the Gallery with the opening of Zhang Huan: Ash Paintings and Memory Doors, which features recent works by acclaimed contemporary Chinese artist Zhang Huan. The exhibition, organized by the AGO, is part of a city-wide celebration of the artist and his first solo exhibition in Toronto in more than a decade.

• Canadian artist Max Dean undertakes a new performance project entitled Album, organized by the AGO as part of the Contact 2012 Photography Festival. Throughout the month of May, the artist gives away 400 photo albums at various locations throughout the city. The project includes the involvement of local Toronto District School Board schools, with 21 of the albums created by elementary-level students.

• Fifty new Canadians receive their citizenships in a special community ceremony held at the AGO, a partnership between Citizenship and Immigration Canada, the Institute for Canadian Citizenship and the AGO.

JUNE 2012

• shopAGOkids opens a brand-new on-site retail space offering art-inspired and design-conscious toys and products for children. The shop provides a fun and interactive place for families to shop, enjoy a meal or take a break.

• The AGO teams up with Blyth Academy to offer Summer School in the City, enriched, accredited secondary school art courses. The program enables students to work alongside educational and curatorial staff, offering a transformative and exciting educational experience.

JULY 2012

• The work of Michael Snow, one of Canada’s most internationally celebrated artists, is highlighted with the exhibition Objects of Vision. The exhibition features Snow’s abstract sculptural work, along with the invitation to the public to sit in them, touch them and, at times, approach with caution.
Highlights of the Year

APRIL 1, 2012 – MARCH 31, 2013

• The AGO introduces Idea Lab, inviting visitors to explore ongoing research into five works of art from the Thomson Collection of European Art. The installation illustrates how AGO curators and conservators closely examine the works, comb through documents and deploy scientific technologies, such as X-rays, CT scanning and radiocarbon dating, to gain a deeper understanding of these works and the history of human creativity.

• The AGO’s FRANK Restaurant celebrates Summerlicious, Toronto’s city-wide, 17-day culinary festival, with Picasso-themed prix-fixe meals.

AUGUST 2012

• As part of the Toronto Now series, Toronto artist Lisa Meyers, in collaboration with Albuquerque-based artist Autumn Chacon, present the sound and video installation Noise Cooking. The exhibition, which examines issues around ancestry, perseverance and celebration, is part of the Planet IndigenUS festival of global Indigenous culture.

• The AGO’s Summer Art Camp completes another successful season, with more than 400 campers from ages six to 18 taking part in programs over a two-month period.

SEPTEMBER 2012

• The AGO Youth Council is recognized by the Ontario Association of Art Galleries with an Art Publication of the Year Award for Do You Read Me?, their collaboration with the Oakville Gallery’s Youth Council, and a Public Program Award for their participation in the collaborative project The Awakening with Humberto Velez, Art Gallery of York University, Monkey Vault Gym and the Mississaugas of the New Credit Youth.

• The exhibition Evan Penny: Re Figured opens, welcoming home internationally renowned Toronto-based sculptor Evan Penny and featuring more than 25 of the artist’s larger-than-life sculptures. Organized by the Kunsthalle Tübingen, Germany, in association with the Art Gallery of Ontario, the exhibition is shown in Germany, Austria and Italy, before ending its tour in Toronto.

• Artist-in-residence Heather Goodchild works in collaboration with artists Naomi Yasui, Josh Hall and musician Doug Paisley to present the large-scale installation Made it Then, Make it Again for Scotiabank Nuit Blanche. This 12-hour, one-night performance involves more than 100 participants producing uniforms, ceramic mugs, aluminum stools and screen-printed posters.

OCTOBER 2012

• The AGO profiles a significant element of its photography collection with the exhibition Josef Sudek: The Legacy of a Deeper Vision. This is Canada’s first retrospective of the artist, with more than 175 photographs by the legendary Czech photographer spanning his entire career.
Frida & Diego: Passion, Politics and Painting opens at the AGO. This major survey of masterworks by two of Mexico's most internationally renowned artists—Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera—features 75 works highlighting their lives, their politics and how their passionate views and activism influenced their work. The exhibition is co-organized by the Art Gallery of Ontario, the High Museum of Art in Atlanta and the Museo Dolores Olmedo in Mexico City, in association with The Vergel Foundation, The Jacques and Natasha Gelman Collection of Mexican Art and Galería Arvil.

The AGO launches First Thursdays, a once-a-month interactive art evening designed for young adults. The program features performances, artmaking activities, and artist and curator tours and is an instant hit.

Proceeds from the Art Toronto 2012 opening night preview gala enables the AGO to purchase works by Canadian artists Julia Dault, Stephen Andrews and Itee Pootoogook, with added assistance from the Dr. Michael Braudo Canadian Contemporary Art Fund and the Joan Chalmers Inuit Art Fund.

NOVEMBER 2012

The AGO and Aeroplan, an Aimia company, announce British photographer Jo Longhurst as the winner of The Grange Prize 2012. Introduced in 2008, this was the first major art prize in the world to be determined by public vote.

The AGO becomes one of the first institutions in Canada to allow photography and video in gallery spaces by visitors for personal use. This new policy enables the public to share their experience at the Gallery with family and friends.

To mark the Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) on November 1, Mexican artist Carlomagno Pedro Martínez constructs an ofrenda (altar) to honour Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera. AGO visitors make their own offerings to place on the ofrenda in memory of these two great artists.

Artist-in-residence Mark Titchner works with StreetART Toronto and the AGO's Youth Council to create several outdoor works around the city, including a large-scale public mural on the west wall of The Drake Hotel.

DECEMBER 2012

AGO visitors get an up-close-and-personal experience with restoration work as AGO conservators demonstrate their skills rehabilitating one of the iconic works in our collection, Claes Oldenburg’s Floor Burger, in gallery space.

NOTES

1. The above statement of operations provides a summary of the AGO’s financial activity for 2012–2013. Financial statements for the 2012 – 2013 fiscal year (April 1, 2012 to March 31, 2013), audited by Ernst & Young, are available upon request from the Art Gallery of Ontario. (Director’s Office: 416-979-6613)

2. Pension adjustment reflects the excess of cash contributions over pension expense for each year.

3. In the 2012 – 2013 fiscal year, the AGO received gifts of works of art with an approximate value of $8,839,000. This is not reflected in the financial data above, but is identified in the AGO’s 2012 – 2013 audited financial statements.

4. The AGO records capital asset purchases at cost and then amortizes its capital assets over the useful life of the asset. Donations and grants received for the purchase of capital assets are deferred and then amortized based on the useful life of the asset.
